

2024
Statement of Financial Eligibility
Cancer Research Interns Summer Program

The National Cancer Institute (NCI) will pay travel expenses for Cancer Research Interns (CRIs) who live outside the Tri-state area and meet the financial criteria published in the Federal Register 887(55)/March 22, 2023/pgs. 17238-17239

Size of Family	Income Level
1	$29,160
2	$39,440
3	$49,720
4	$60,000
5	$70,280
6	$80,560
7	$90,840
8	$101,120

This statement is intended as certification only and will not be shared with anyone outside of the NCI's Center for Cancer Training.

I, the undersigned, hereby certify that my annual income or my parents' income (for students still carried for tax purposes) falls within the limits established by the Federal Register, Volume 88, No.55, March 22, 2023, as follows:

Number in Family: _____

Annual Income $ _____

Full name of CRI Fellow

Date:

Signature of CRI Fellow (if independent)

Date:

Signature of Parent (if applicable)

Date:

Instructions: To certify your eligibility for travel expenses please complete this form and upload it along with your application on Train at NCI.